See me, hear me
But still you try to box me in
You think you know my mind by the color of my skin
See me, hear me
But still you try to box me in
You think you know my mind by the color of my skinADF back with a lyrical death threat
With you ignorant attitudes what the fuck did you expect?
Well mash up your stereo
With a typical body blowAsian distortion
Better tread it with caution
Better treat it with cautionEyes permanently closed you tell me everything's alright
Chemical escape youre desensitized
Sitting cross-legged with your joss sticks and your flutes
Just taking and faking whats easy no respect for our rootsSee me, hear me
But still you try to box me in
You think you know my mind be the color of my skinADF back with a lyrical death threat
With you ignorant attitudes what the fuck did you expect?
Well mash up your stereo
With a typical body blowAsian distortion
Better tread it with caution
Better treat it with cautionMany noises and voices and messages in the blender
Yes I speak out to many cos its a bigger agenda
But preach to the converted is what you say we do
Show them to me man I dont see them, do you?Everybody talking man theyre now talking about
Say its the junglistic sound
That is coming around
And if you choosa di sound and a fuse a it downFrom top to bottom create your own obsession
Master Deeder that is my name and Im kicking all the way
All the way for the fame we four brothers one of a kind
Like no other you will findMilitant scientists
Yes, thats what we are
No were never gonna be laid back

Too busy dodging your attackADF here to kick your arse again
Well give you bass in your face
And were gonna offend
PeaceSee me, hear me
But still you try to box me in
You think you know my mind by the color of my skin
See me, hear me
But still you try to box me in
You think you know my mind by the color of my skinADF back with a lyrical death threat
With you ignorant attitudes what the fuck did you expect?
Well mash up your stereo
With a typical body blowAsian distortion
Better tread it with caution
Better treat it with cautionSee me, hear me
But still you try to box me in
You think you know my mind by the color of my skin
See me, hear me
But still you try to box me in
You think you know my mind by the color of my skin
