

Last Song

Marianne Faithfull

Lost his own, taken down
All his songs
Till his all alone
And all our love was harmed
Except for you I'm only young, favorite son
Say you tried, take it back
To where you belong
And all the things you say
Still untrue We saw the green fields
Turn into homes
Such lonely homes We saw the green fields
Turn into homes
Such lovely homes Do what you want to do I was digging up, sorting out
Only to built a song alone
Till you came along
But all my love was there
Just all for you And in the darkest time
We crossed the line, made a song
'Cause all the talk was wrong
And all you ever won
Can still be true We saw the green fields
Turn into homes
Such lonely homes We saw the green fields
Turn into stone
Such lonely homes We saw the green fields
Turn into homes
Such lovely homes We saw the green fields
Turn into stone
Such lonely stone Now all my love is out
It's just for you
It's not a love song
It's the last song for you
