

All I Want

Captain Hollywood Project

All I want All I want
All I want is you A love is harder than rocks an' ice
Sometimes love can be so nice
A gamble, just like throwing the dice.
Lose once and then lose twice
But still I'm hoked inside
Jump off in my pants and ride
Somewhere, don't care anywhere
Just get me the hell out of here
Pain often in my heart
Ask myself why did I start
This game, that give me daily changing
And driving me crazy
Sometimes, I want to step back
But its so damn hard to do that no matter what you do
All I want is you All I want is you Babe
No matter where you're going to Babe
No matter if you let me know
I'll always follow you
All I want is say babe
I guess you ran away babe
No matter if you tell me no
I always make it so
I know what I want
I know what I want
All I want is you Babe
I know what I want
I know what I want
All I want is you Babe Time is what we're wasting
And success a dream we're chasing
Cause we need to sit down stop all the play around
Find a place to a home lay our head down Get my Brainstorm brand new bangs on practice love is the ideal going
Peace is what you say to me
All the time you try betraying me
Hope one day we'll stop and we'll see Yo that's not the way be

Living a life a pastor wont laster
Look a the world : a disaster ever put your hands together
Try to live together we could never
But still no matter what you do
All I want is you
