Saving Grace

The Nixons

Saving grace for now
Know that someday, I might seem worth while
Feeling closer now
And the question should be who not howKnow that I'll be there, to catch you when you fall
Know that I'll be there, walk or crawl
Just know that I'll be thereHolding my breath for now
Know that with you I might breath again
Aching just to be beside you
Inside you, in every wayKnow that I'll be there, to catch you when you fall
Know that I'll be there, walk or crawl
Just know that I'll be there, yeahSaving grace for now
Know that someday, I might seem worth while
Aching just to be
Everything and everywhere to you some wayKnow that I'll be there, to catch you when you fall
Know that I'll be there, walk or crawl
Just know that I'll be thereI'll be there in body, be there in soul
When the night surrounds you and your feeling all, feeling all alone
I'll be there beside you regardless of miles
I know that I'll see you only foreverJust know that I'll be there
Know that I'll be there
Know that I'll be
