

Modern Love (Friction Remix)

Coasts

The sunlight, no sound
Seek shade until we touch the ground
Rough night, hard flown
Gotta promise you an open door
List out, call lubes
Can't remember walking back with you
Skin burns, blood foams
Now we've got a place to call our own
This MODERN LOVE
Was always gonna fade away
This MODERN LOVE
And now we're gonna start away
This MODERN LOVE
This MODERN LOVE
Oho, oho, I can hear you calling out
Oho, oho, echoes of a distant sound
Still high, for now
Walk woman, try to figure it out
Heart beats so slow
Now we're living in the afterglow
This MODERN LOVE
Was always gonna fade away
This MODERN LOVE
And now we're gonna start away
This MODERN LOVE
This MODERN LOVE
Oho, oho, I can hear you calling out
Oho, oho, echoes of a distant sound
I just wanna stay strong
Been waiting for your love so long
I just wanna stay strong
Been waiting for your touch
Oho, oho, I can hear you calling out
Oho, oho, echoes of a distant sound
This MODERN LOVE
Was always gonna fade away
This MODERN LOVE
And now we're gonna start away
Oho, oho, I can hear you calling out
Oho, oho, echoes of a distant sound
