Do U Remember The Time

Jmsn

Tell me what would you do,
If things got so complicated,
That the lies become true,
And the things made us now just tear is apart,
The feeling you once loved now rips out your heart.Can we back it up?
Back to where we were alive, no worries,
We can take our time, no hurry,
When things were looking right, not blurry,
You could see the shine, not dirty,
Do you remember the time,
When it used to be soo easy,
And do you remember the time,
You said you'd never leave me, Why'd you go?It's all recorded, our fate is pre-determinded,
There's no orchestra,
The world keeps turning everyday I'm learning,
Now my... life is a memory of a time when things were.. Right.Can we back it up?
Back to where we were alive, no worries,
We can take our time, no hurry,
When things were looking right, not blurry,
You could see the shine,
Do you remember the time,
When it used to be soo easy,
And do you remember the time,
You said you'd never leave me, Why'd you go?Do you remember the time,
When it used to be soo easy,
And do you remember the time,
You said you'd never leave me, Why'd you go?
