Your Hand In Mine

Paradise Lost

Pay the deadly price
Lift the fallen prize
Told you soon will die
Sin that sails alightCarry ungodly crimes
Traveling out of reach
Taking the weight of the night upon my back
You cannot believe the pain that I've seenCrawling out of life, my fire is strong
Can it be I can't go on?
And I'm hurt now, don't turn your backChanging ways, events prolong
Hidden by the mist, insinuate what's goneYour hand in mine
We'll reach the sign of plains above us
Your hand in mine
Unholy times of pain relentlessForced to watch not eagerly
Breaking hearts with words and all ecstasyYour hand in mine
Reveal all life, uphold all others
Your hand in mine
Are you alive with flames of sadness?
