Still Waters

Anneli Drecker

Still waters run deep now
I've been watching you so long
I know that something's twisted
I know that something's wrong
How long ago
Did you consult your heart
You consult your heart
Tend it, as i
Should do too
My true and tender comfort
That is what I offer you
Ooh, it's so easy not to say that
It's so easy not to do
How long ago
How long now
Will you remain apart
Split your head and heart
Keep them not apart
You must consult your heart
Tend it, as I should do too
Tend it as I wish I could
Tend it, as I should do too
Tend it, as I wish I could do too..
This isn't my fault
It is a why-mode
