

A World of Hurt

Vader

In the world of hurt
Nothing ever welcomes
Nothing ever opens
Nothing ever brightens
Nothing ever changesNo occult revival
No gods to be served
No light to be searched
No triumph of love and will
In the world of hurtIn the world of hurtIn the world of hurt
Everything is bitter
Everything is painful
Everything is stained
Everything's slow cold shockI remain and suffer
I strive and fail
I shiver and moan
And keep telling myself
This is not a world of hurtIn the world of hurt
We're all small and petty
We all crave for dreams
We all watch and lie
We're all blunt and lostI remain and suffer
I strive and fail
I shiver and moan
And keep telling myself
This is not a world of hurtNot the world of hurt
Not the world of hurt
