Broken Home

Hailey Verhaalen

He sat her down at the end of the day
Those nine little words she prayed he never would say
I think itâ€™s best if we both move on
But she couldnâ€™t fathom what had gone wrong

Shaking her head she said baby why now
After 25 years why just walk out
Yea he watched those tears roll down her face
And she said this is all I have to say

Chorus:
Take this house and split it down the middle
You can have the pictures of the kids when they were little
Iâ€™ll take the ones of them full grown
And you can have this perfectly broken home
Take that paper and rip it in half
Give me 25 years Iâ€™ll never get back
When I took those vows, I meant forever
What about the dreams we made together

She said now we got to tell the kids
About this thing that you decided
I hope our little girl never hurts like this
And that our boy donâ€™t think it was time wasted

I guess now all thatâ€™s left

Chorus:
Is to take this house and split it down the middle
You can have the pictures of the kids when they were little
Iâ€™ll take the ones of them full grown
And you can have this perfectly broken home
Take that paper and rip it in half
Give me 25 years Iâ€™ll never get back
When I took those vows, I meant forever
What about the dreams we made together

Bridge:
Well the weeks went by and those papers were signed

25 years gone at the dotted line

Chorus:
They took that house and split it down the middle Thereâ€™s a â€œfor saleâ€• sign outside of the window
And a house once filled with joy and love
And all these years just left to pack up
They go their own way and the tears start falling
It takes all sheâ€™s got not to break down and call him
What she doesnâ€™t know, is heâ€™s crying too
He didnâ€™t realize how much he had to lose

Now itâ€™s just a broken home yea a broken home
A broken home yea a broken home

Lyrics Submitted by Hailey Verhaalen

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/