

Sweet

Frente!

She's my one and only friend Sweetly going 'round the bend
Her best laid plans are for my sentiment It's best I keep my hands to myself hands to myself and everything I think I think I understand to myself

Don't fall, I won't catch you Don't stall, I won't get too Don't call, you won't have to
at all

She gives me a long slow smile if anything happens I'd be sure to die barefoot and breaths on a hornets nest my heads so busy I should try to think less try to think less for every single no there's gonna be a yes

Don't fall, I won't catch you
Don't stall, I won't get too
Don't call, you won't have to
at all

If she goes down, I just have to let her go She's gotta learn what she doesn't wanna know

Don't wanna know
Don't wanna know
Don't wanna know

Don't fall, I won't catch you Don't stall, I won't get to Don't call, you won't have to
Don't fall, I won't catch you
Don't stall, I won't get to Don't call, you won't have to
at all
