Devil's On the Telephone

Brian Goss

Corporate alphabetical order
Changed my name and walked across the borderKiss the world goodbye and blow the dandelion
Devils on the telephone
He's taking notes and throwing stones againA portrait of the artist as the arson
Tortured sons are howling at the orphansKiss the world goodbye and blow the dandelion
Heaven sent a telegraph
He's busy signing autographs it readsWe're all airplanes filled with filthy baggage
Please don't blame the messenger for the messageKiss the world goodbye and blow the dandelion
Devils on the telephone
He's taking notes and throwing stones again
