

Little Miss Naughty

Scouting for Girls

Mirror Mirror on the wall, How could I be such a fool?
Mirror Mirror I can't see myself no more.

Breathe, breathe in.
Welcome to a town called Original Sin.
Breathe, breathe out.
Easy getting in, it ain't easy getting out.
Cry, out loud.
If you're in for penny, you're in for a pound.
Don't, don't pause.
You're just another sad case, another lost cause.

Mirror Mirror on the wall, How could I be such a fool?
Mirror Mirror I can't see myself no more.

A little mistake, and that's how you caught me,
Running around with little miss naughty.
A little mistake, Am I seeing double?
I see in your eyes you're gonna be trouble.
You're gonna be trouble.

Breathe, breathe In
If only you could see all the trouble I'm in
Breathe, breathe Out
Another house of cards comes tumbling down

Mirror Mirror on the wall, How could I be such a fool?
Mirror Mirror I can't see myself no more.

A little mistake, and that's how you caught me,
Running around with little miss naughty.
A little mistake, Am I seeing double?
I see in your eyes you're gonna be trouble.
You're gonna be trouble.

Mirror Mirror on the wall, How could I be such a fool?
Mirror Mirror I can't see myself no more.

A little mistake, and that's how you caught me,
Running around with little miss naughty.

A little mistake, Am I seeing double?
I see in your eyes you're gonna be trouble.
You're gonna be trouble.

La la la la la la la la.
