How Much More Can She Stand

Conway Twitty

There's a devil in my body that I just can't satisfy
Other women haunt me even though, I love my wife
It's because I really love her, I try to save her heart with love
But I know she knows, I can see it in her eyesI tried to stay at home, love only her, play with the kids and watch TV
But then my mind becomes unsure about the kind of love I need
My reasons for cheating their as good as lies can be
How much more can she stand and still stand by meIt's so hard for me to call her, I can hardly dial the phone
I did wrong again last night, now, I just want to go back home
She knows that I've lied, Lord, she'll cry where I can see
How much more can she stand and still stand by me
How much more can she stand and still stand by me
