Curtains Closed

Ray J

Our love's been tested lately
We always in the public eye
But when we finally get alone
I'm reminded while my heart still belongs to you, girl
And nah, don't ever
Baby don't make me live without you
You're my only centerpiece
The balance that I really need, oh yeahAll I need is you
You make me feel like all I need is you
And when the curtains close
And the lights go down
And the Phantom pull off
I'm saying when the show is over
The cameras stop recording
I can't wait 'til it's just me and you
You got me saying oh-oh, oho, oho, oho, oh-oh
Oh-oh, oho, oho, oho, oh-oh
Oh-oh, oho, oho, oho, oh-oh
And when the curtains close
And the lights go down
And the Phantom pull off
Better know all I, all I, all I really need is
All I, all I, all I really need is you
(Up and down on top of me)And you know I love the way you be sexing me
Mentally and physically, penthouse and Hennessy
I'm fucking with your energy
You're my favorite remedy
Like oh yeah, oh yeahAnd when the curtains close
All I, all I, all I really need is you
All I need is you
You make me feel like all I need is you (You baby, starting here right now)
And when the curtains close (Imma be honest baby)
And the lights go down
And the Phantom pull off (And Imma be on you tonight)
I'm saying when the show is over
The cameras stop recording
I can't wait 'til it's just me and you
You got me saying oh-oh, oho, oho, oho, oh-oh
Oh-oh, oho, oho, oho, oh-oh

Oh-oh, oho, oho, oho, oh-oh
And when the curtains close
