Jrumhand

I, what did I say?
Cause I cant remember your name and breath
And I dont know what you once said
And now look what you doIm free to say what you wanted was mine
Not free, dont stop it's the end
Im tired of it, but not to ones selfA place I couldnt change
Theres more, its hard to explain for me
So smile, theres no time to reflect
To fall from secrets like theseIm free to say what you wanted was mine
Not free, dont stop its the end
Im tired of it, but not to ones self
Im tired of it, but not to ones selfTo say what you wanted was mine
Not free, dont stop its the end
Im tired of it, but not to ones self
Im tired of it, but not to ones self
