Man Without Ties (Single Version)

Paul Westerberg

Men without ties don't dress for dinner
It's Friday night frozen pizza thing
Don't want no wife or no beginner
Friday night frozen, pizza kingEverything you buy is soon expired
Some neighbors they're a-thinking that you're gay
Others they assume that you've been fired
See you smoking cigarettes all dayWell, men without ties don't dress for dinner
Do the Friday night frozen, pizza thing
Well I don't want no wife or no beginner
You're the Friday night frozen, pizza kingOn Saturday they won't catch you in your yard
You're dreaming of tonight's fine cuisine
With a microwave and a library card
It'll taste like plastic, but it'll be faster
Ha, sing itMen without ties don't dress for dinner
Do the Friday night frozen pizza thing
Well I don't want no wife or no beginner
You're the Friday night frozen pizza kingMen without ties, it's about timeMen without ties don't dress for dinner
Do the Friday night frozen pizza thing
Well I don't want no wife or no beginner
You're the Friday night frozen pizza kingMen without ties don't dress for dinner
Men without ties don't need a thing
Don't want no wife, show to cut byMen without ties, men without ties
Men without ties, men without ties
Men without ties, men without ties
Men without ties, men without ties
