

Sinister

Shane

She's weak behind her strong facade walks like a saint, lives like a fraud hands around my neck, begging for breath

Her eyes entice her smile drips with poison flowing from her lips Stunning demon
I fell in love with I sadly fell in love with

Our love is nothing she whispered
nothing but sinister, nothing but hell
lost sense of myself

But if you want we can crucify
Our past to the cross tonight
And finally be free
finally be free

forgive me
forgive me

I can't dissect my criminal mind wander aimlessly and try To understand this twisted life Understand this twisted mind

Take her heart and make it bleed feed on insecurity cross the boundary all the time from lover to her enemy
from lover to her enemy

Our love is nothing she whispered
nothing but sinister, nothing but hell
lost sense of myself

But if you want we can crucify
Our past to the cross tonight
And finally be free

finally be free

forgive me
forgive me

Hold my hand, take my heart lets run away from the dark
Hold my hand, take my heart

Our love is nothing she whispered
nothing but sinister, nothing but hell
lost sense of myself

But if you want we can crucify
Our past to the cross tonight
And finally be free

Nothing but sinister
