Feel Alright

Handmade Moments

Hold me in your arms and tell me everythingâ€™s alright
I feel alright
Though Iâ€™m going down, I know youâ€™ll stick around, just to hear me out

My broken heart it doesnâ€™t feel so bad today
As long as I can get the chance to hear you say, say my name
Oh oh oh

Sun is up, my head is low, canâ€™t find no relief
Oh I try, but god he makes it too hard to believe
Iâ€™m coming up, oh Iâ€™m coming round, fall down to my knees
Tell me yes, or tell me no, just tell me something please

My broken heart, it doesnâ€™t feel so bad today
As long as I can get the chance to hear you say, say my name
Oh oh oh

Hold me in your arms and tell me everythingâ€™s alright
I feel alright
Though Iâ€™m going down, I know youâ€™ll stick around, just to hear me out

When you hold me in your arms and tell me everythingâ€™s alright
I feel alright
Though Iâ€™m going down, I know youâ€™ll stick around, just to hear me out

My broken heart, it doesnâ€™t feel so bad today
As long as I can get the chance to hear you say, say my name
Oh oh oh
