

Lonely World

Robin Thicke

Sexy girl on a plane
Why u crying? Whats your name?
Who u running from?
Teddy bear, pink room,
Fresh out of high school,
Sweet like the evening sun
Mama says "Don't you think your special"
Daddy says "Youre my queen"
Shes afraid she's going' nowhere
Locked and lost between But oh, lonely girl dont you worry babe
How can you get by?
Lonely girl dont you live your life
Through someone elses eyes Egg faced boy on a train
Why U sad? Whats your name?
Who you running from?
Packed house, shared jeans,
Front porch, moon beams
gotta get out of this town No more bible, he will travel
He'll learn so much in school
Daddy drinks himself into courage
Says "Fuck you, I'm no fool" Oh, lonely boy dont U worry babe
How can u get by?
Lonely boy dont you see your life
In someone elses eyes Lonely girl dont u worry babe
How can u get by?
Lonely girl dont u see your life
Through someone elses eyes (Oh) Dream on (Oh)
Dream on (Oh) dreamers
Keep on (Oh) dreaming Beautiful mom, can you smile?
Can you glow? Can you sing me my favourite song?
Coffee from one, clothes are clean
Kids are gone, what to do?
Shes asleep inside
She sits, birds fly out her window
She watches jealously
She said "She's too old for new things"
But mamma you got wings
Oh, Lonely girl don't you lose your dreams
Through someone else's cries

Lonely girl, don't you see your life
Through someone else's eyes
Lonely world don't you find your faith
In someone else's life
Lonely world don't you live your life
In someone else's eyes (Oh) Oh, Dream on (Oh)
Ooh Dream on (Oh) dreamers
Keep on, dream on (Oh)
Ooh Dream on (Oh)
Dream on (oh)
Keep on (Oh)
Keep on (Oh)
