

Lay Me Down

Meja

I get so weary sometimes Of all the pain and the sorrow There's too much on my mind Where will the world be tomorrow I can't sleep when I feel this tired Funny how frustration breeds desire Lay me down like a river tonight Rush into me, rush into the sea Lay me down in the naked moonlight Quiet the currents that run inside of me Lay me down, lay me down... I held back for so long In you I finally found Longer than anyone thought I could I didn't dare dream love could exist Somebody weird, somebody good I was scared to taste that deep a kiss Lay me down like a river tonight Rush into me, rush into the sea Lay me down in the naked moonlight Quiet the currents that run inside of me Lay me down, lay me down... Funny how frustration breeds desire I can't sleep when I feel this tired Lay me down like a river tonight Rush into me, rush into the sea Quiet the currents that run inside of me Lay me down in the naked moonlight Lay me down, lay me down... Lay me down, lay me down...
