

Explorer/Cartographer

Ormonde

In this room
I am burning your
Orange peel
The one you left behindIt's the only thing
To remember you by
Oh that way you were
On that first nightYou can be cartographer
I can be explorer
You can still be cartographer
I can still be explorerLying here in this unfamiliar bed
I put my ear to your soft breast
And hear a dark and distant drum
Sound in this disappearing room
You can be explorer
I can be cartographer
You can still be explorer
I can still be cartographer
