

Great Evader

Intergalactic Lovers

Where has the light gone I can't find it
All of these streets are paved with broken bodies
I've read the books, I've studied case by case to learn
The more you know the bittersweet it tastes And oh my Lord I've lost my mind again
Confused by all of these choices in my head Is there anybody out here
Who can make, make this stop?
So tired of feeling
Oh these burdens, this being And is there anybody out there
Who can make, make this stop? I'll keep my cup filled to escape these thoughts of mine
I'll have whatever it takes to ease this war inside
And oh my Lord I've lost my mind again
Confused by all of these choices in my head Is there anybody out here
Who can make, make this stop?
So tired of feeling
Oh these burdens, this being And is there anybody out here
Who can make, make this stop?
So tired of feeling
Oh the vastness of being You give they'll take to realize
It's never enough, no one is satisfied
You give they'll take to realize
It's never enough, never enough
You give they'll take to realize
It's never enough, no one is satisfied
You'll give they'll take to realize
It's never enough, never enough Is there anybody out here
Who can make, make this stop?
So tired of feeling
Oh these burdens, this being Is there anybody out here
Who can make, make this stop?
So tired of feeling
Oh the vastness of being
