The Third Dance from the End

Simon Casey

The Third Dance From The End

I can still see your smile, the night your heart met mine
You with your bright eyes, captured in time
The Heavens were ringing and the angels were singing
The third dance from the end.

I watched you dancing, didn`t know what to say
The evening was passing, still I hoped and I prayed
Then you stood there before me and you took my hand
The third dance from the end.

Chorus:
So waltz with me slowly, I could never be lonely
With you here as my lifelong friend
Going to hold you a little closer, I`m so glad you walked over
The third dance from the end.

When this boy from the country heard your sweet sounding voice
He counted his blessings for this Ladies Choice
The Heavens were ringing and the angels were singing
The third dance from the end.

Built a lifetime together..working hard..for the better
Taking each day as it came
Still counting those blessings for this Ladies Choice
The third dance from the end.

Chorus x 2

Â© Noel O`Farrell 2017

Lyrics Submitted by Simon Casey

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/