Saving Grace

The Pretenders

I've really made a fool of myself
I hit the wall but it never bothered you at all
Oohhh
My pony bolted out too soon
Left me howling at the moon

You are my saving grace (oo my saving grace)
You put me in my place (you put me in my place)
I see your smiling face (I see your smiling face)
The clouds disappear, and blue skies fill the space
You are my saving grace

I didn't know what I was s'posed to be
I tried to bluff, but I never offered you enough,
Oohh
Now I'm feeling the remorse
I want you back because of course

You are my saving grace (oo my saving grace)
You put me in my place (you put me in my place)
I see your smiling face (I see your smiling face)
The clouds disappear, and blue skies fill the space
You are my saving grace

Do you remember when, you gave your heart to me
I want it back again, I want it back again
Oh baby, Sweet baby

Won't you reconsider me?
Coz as anyone can see..

You are my saving grace (oo my saving grace)
You put me in my place (you put me in my place)
I see your smiling face (I see your smiling face)
The clouds disappear, and blue skies fill the space
You are my saving grace
You are my saving grace

You are my saving grace
You put me in my place

I see your smiling face (I see your smiling face)
The clouds disappear, and blue skies fill the space
You are my saving grace
You are my saving grace
You are my saving grace
