

Slow Down (feat. Chrisette Michele)

Ghostface Killah

This life will fade away so I would appreciate,
Each moment of each day life's quick don't flip move slow your wrestling Looking lavished I lace all my bullies with carrots,
Spending millions then making music I pay for the clearance,
Cause tomorrow ain't promised and my bank roll is burstin',
Connects with Aston Martin
I be the first in the prototype truck with that space navigation,
Cost of living go up I just go on vacation,
Fresh oxes and tanks the worlds best surgeons
Plus robes made with swede and knitted by virgins,
First breath of the day could be my last so I flash
Give my niggas some cash just pull out the stash,
5 million dollar piece like I buy a pack of C's
You buy OZ's full of haze I by a forest full of trees This life will fade away so I would appreciate,
Each moment of each day life's quick don't flip move slow your wrestling Bottles of lou the 13th its Don P
I got a bunch of chicks that love to get raunchy see,
Toney double dip then I nut like (?),
Ask nina and shavon I got them both goin bananas,
Buy em frosted bracelets, Louis vattan duffles,
French vanilla ice cream and hot apple pie truffles,
Flying me to costa rica
I got a crib on the beach with underwater lights and surround sounds speakers,
Pet cheetahs tigers sharks and dolphin fetus,
Fly French maids that serve goose by the liters,
Got Falicia and Tiquisha Krystal and Katie
Little precious picking my poppy seeds out in Haiti,
