

Small World

Johnny Mathis

Funny, you're a stranger who's come here
Come from another town
Funny, I'm a stranger myself here
Small world, isn't it? Funny, you're a girl who goes traveling
Rather than settling down
Funny, 'cause I'd love to go traveling
Small world, isn't it? We have so much in common
It's a phenomenon
We could pool our resources
By joining forces from now on Lucky, you're a girl who likes children
That's an important sign
Lucky, 'cause I'd love to have children
Small world, isn't it?
Funny, isn't it small and funny and fine? Lucky, 'cause I'd love to have children
Small world, isn't it?
Funny, isn't it small and funny and fine?

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>