Shadowcasting

Remy Zero

Run, for our home
You lie, tired and faded
By the old engine light
So long, I think it's over now
As a song tomorrow
I sat in hollow sounds
And all I've said is fading slow
No one cares to rain
I've known to overflow
No one ever believes
It's all deceived
[Incomprehensible]Run you know I'm left for fire
Just start a new rising sun
But you know I'm all right
I'll never call you back
So look out your window
As the sun comes down
And all I've said is fading slow
And no one cares
To rain I've known
It's never happened before
No one cares
To rain I've known to overflow
No one ever believes
It's all deceived
[Incomprehensible][Incomprehensible]
