

I Broadcast

Blur

I love the aspects of another city
The representatives are alright
In circulation the snake and the tiger
Waking up and shaving in industrial life I broadcast
Closing on another day now
All for a cold sore
Something out of nothing I love the aspects of another city
It's got your number and your blood type
They been intentionous so need some focus
The apparitions of another prodigal night, right? I broadcast
Closing on another day now
All for a high score
Something out of nothing I broadcast I'm running, I'm running, I'm running I broadcast
Closing on another day now
All for a cold sore
Something out of nothing I broadcast
Closing on another day now
All for a cold sore
Something out of nothing
