

Monster

One-Eyed Doll

In a dark and scary night
When everyone's asleep
I hold my breath with all my might
Careful not to make a peep
For I'm afraid if I should make
But one little tiny sound
A monster will take a wooden stake
And nail me to the ground
I can see a monster's shadow
Monster in my head
I can taste a monster's breath
A monster in my bed
Thunder rumbles down the hallway
Footsteps shake the floor
I pray the Lord my soul to take
As light streams through the door
I can see a monster's shadow
Monster in my head
I can taste a monster's breath
A monster in my bed
