

Just Can't Let Go (feat. Jacob Bunton)

Gus G.

I remember all the lies and all the stupid games,
Just one more second chance,
To take your breath away,
In a world that never sleeps,
You hide behind closed eyes,
I'm drowning in an echo,
Of your last goodbye, Just can't let go,
Of the way that it was before,
I never thought that you would ever turn your back on me,
When i gave you everything,
Just can't let go,
I wanna dodge you but you're so cold,
Did you really think that i would let you walk away,
I'm still holding on to one more second chance, Your voice rings in my head,
I feel you getting colder,
Just one more second chance,
Lets start it over,
These guys we try to hide,
They never fade away,
They paint the stories of our lives,
Gone riddled to the grave, Just can't let go,
Of the way that it was before,
I never thought that you would ever turn your back on me,
When i gave you everything,
Just can't let go,
I wanna dodge you but you're so cold,
Did you really think that i would let you walk away,
I'm still holding on to one more second chance, Ahha
Ahha I remember all of those things you did,
We can put it back again, Just one more second chance, Instrumental Just can't let go,
Of the way that it was before,
I never thought that you would ever turn your back on me,
When i gave you everything,
Just can't let go,
I wanna dodge you but you're so cold,
Did you really think that i would let you walk away,
I'm still holding on to one more second chance.
