

Driftwood (Forever and Never)

Viddiot

You're sleepwalking but you keep talking
I can hear every word you say
You've got a feeling like the tide receding
I know we won't be coming back this way
I take a risk and I ask you there to a restaurant; maybe catch a show
But when I ask you if you want to go
You say 'Yes' you say 'No'.

Oh, Love was it just a dream and now it's gone
I can see you drifting away from me
We waited too long

You say yes, you say no
I'm lost at sea
You say yes, you say no
You are lost to me
You say yes you say no
Lost at sea...
