Evilution

Stuck Mojo

I watch you be consumed by your own weaknessIt's a sickness and I've been a witnessNo pride no respect the image you project
It's a sickness and I've been a witnessThe sickness inside of youIt eats you deletes youIt rapes you it breaks you
The haze that you live inI watch you travel down the path of evilution
Your words they sicken me
Where's the solutionThe life you lead is soulless pollution
You seem to live your life in total confusionStep up, you can front if you want toYou're a slave and a slug to your favorite drugYou're half a man, your own biggest fan
I often visualize this worldWithout your filthy presence
And I stand pissin' on your graveWithout a sense of reverenceA disease of societyStranger to sobrietyYou're half a man, your own biggest fan
