Feel My Pain

C-Murder

[Chorus x 2]Only thug niggaz feel my pain
I'm a ride for my homie cause he TRU to the game
Ain't no love cause my blood ain't the same as yours
It got me knocking on heaven's door
Feel my pain[C-Murder]I lost something in the past that was special to me
You can't feel what I feel cause the shit's too deep
So give love to your mothafucking thugs alive
Cause ain't no saying when your mothafucking loved ones die
Don't point the finger and criticize what he did
Invest all your thoughts in all the time he lived
Will I ever see my brother again time will tell
I feel like I'm trapped between heaven and hell
I turn on the radio to forget them for me
Tears coming out my eyes cause I hear I miss my homies
On top of that my court date's tomorrow
Facing 10 years added to my pain and sorrow baby mama don't want me to leave my kids
We can move to the country and forget what I did
But reality keep telling me that ain't cool
I wanna see my kids go to school
Feel my pain nigga[Chorus x2][C-Murder]Nobody knows when your time gone come
I live life to the fullest, TRU niggaz don't run
Anticipating your death make ya soft and sick
I leave my worries at home when I'm hanging with my click
I reminisce about all my niggaz that dead
A lesson was learned when they put you in the grave
It don't matter what you got when a nigga wanna get ya
Cause if a nigga wanna hit ya, a nigga gone hit ya
Bulletproof with Ak's and 100 round drums
Can't stop one bullet penetrating your dome
That's why I value nothing but family and friends
You lose material shit, you can get it again
But ain't no coming back when you meet the Reaper
I done lost too many thugs to the permanent sleeper
Cause everyday a nigga taking a chance
Only thug niggaz feel my pain
Feel my pain[Chorus]
