Sure Gonna Miss Her

Done Again

I never did too much to make her stay here
Words of love to her I'd never say
I guess I learned a lesson when she walked out to stayAnd I'm sure gonna miss her
Sure gonna miss her
I'm sure gonna miss her every dayI don't suppose I ever said, "I love you"
And I found out too late that wasn't right
I'm just now realizin' what I've lost that's why I'm cryin'And I'm sure gonna miss her
Sure gonna miss her
I'm sure gonna miss her every nightI know I took her love for granted
Guess you could say my love was blind
Thought if she left by I could stand it
Or else it didn't matter at the timeI heard she's found a guy that treats her better
I hope he knows that he's a lucky guy
I know the rumor's true because I saw her todayAnd I'm sure gonna miss her
He was walking with her
I'm sure gonna miss her, yes I am
