The Beast

Jessikill

Back in time
In the fight for life
There stood a Beast
In the fields of the lost

The Third Reich
was the final strike
To The Hills
You must escape

Run Away
From The Beast

A yellow star loss of hope it's the ending of your past

Fly with me or choose to be the farthest place
I know

Run Away
from The Beast

(Live Version)
At the end of the war
The Beast Turned to flee
he knows his time was short Mark an end to his history

Run Away
From the Beast
