

Push

Christine Evans

I can hear you loud and clear, don't scream
I don't understand just what you need
I'm trying to hold on but it's harder still to wait
Don't make this my fault, stop pushing me away
Chorus:
I'm sorry that you feel like you do
Don't pull me in, don't pull me in
Oh well I hope I'm not a burden on you
I won't give in so don't pull me in
Why is it so difficult to do
I desperately want to hold on to you
Oh well you're stubborn in your ways
Am I stubborn still in mine
And will you ever change?
Or am I wasting my time?
Chorus
I'm sorry that you feel like you do
Don't pull me in, don't pull me in
Oh well I hope I'm not a burden on you
I won't give in so don't pull me in
And why won't the words come out?
I have so much to say
Oh it's useless when you shout
Because it's pushing me away
Oh yeah, it's pushing me, it's pushing me away
Chorus
I'm sorry that you feel like you do
Don't pull me in, don't pull me in
Oh well I hope I'm not a burden on you
I won't give in so don't pull me in
