

Crash

Trella

[Verse 1]

All the years I kept my heart from beating
Holding back on a twisted shore
All the years I cried under your demons
As I latched on to a love so poor[Pre-Chorus]
'Cause I was living in the pretense
Hiding what I felt in plain charm
I'm giving up, giving up
I wanna be free this time
'Cause I was living in the pretense
Now I'm living real with what I've got
I'm standing up, standing up
I'm gonna be free this time[Chorus]
Crashing your fable, I'm diving in spaces
I was hiding from, hiding from
Crashing your label, I'm nobody's lady
I'm ready to soar, ready to soar[Verse 2]
Picking up the pieces that I lost
The illusion that you broke me I've chased off
Lifting up my calloused hands
Throwing away my cares like I did your plans[Pre-Chorus]
'Cause I was living in the pretense
Now I'm living real with what I've got
I'm standing up, I'm standing up
I'm gonna be free this time[Chorus]
Crashing your fable, I'm diving in spaces
I was hiding from, hiding from
Crashing your label, I'm nobody's lady
I'm ready to soar, ready to soar[Bridge]
Time after time again, I forgot my name
Time after time again, I took on the blame
After some time again, I caught on to this wicked game
I'm breaking out[Chorus]
Crashing your fable, I'm diving in spaces
I was hiding from, hiding from
Crashing your label, I'm nobody's lad
