Mid-July

Jonah Roth

Ease oh ease
Feel relief
Take yourself away from
All these
Awful things
Please oh please
Find beneath
What troubles lie
Let's just
Wait out the time

Maybe we'll find mid-July alright
A tangled loop in my heart's in sight
If the weather's warm enough
Maybe we can open up
Shine some light on
So much of
What we have and
What's to come
This mid-July

Flee oh flee
All that's been
Is all it can be while we're Waiting
Patiently
Oh one day
If we wait
Love has its limits but may
Flourish
Finding it's way

Maybe we'll find mid-July alright
A tangled loop in my heart's in sight
If the weather's warm enough
Maybe we can open up
Shine some light on
So much of
What we have and

What's to come
If the weather's warm enough
Maybe we can open up
Shine some light on
So much of
What we have and
What's to come
This mid-July

And it's so close
Hope rolls
In it could be that

Maybe we'll find mid-July alright
A tangled loop in my heart's in sight
Maybe we can open up
Shine some light on
So much of
What we have and
What's to come
Maybe we can open up
Shine some light on
So much of
What we have and
What's to come
This mid-July
