Has Your Mind Got Away?

Bernard Butler

Got your mind set on something but you won't let it show
Got an expert opinion, got your 3D show
Got your line full of women all waiting in two
Has your mind got away? YeahNot a lot of sense believing in a man with no home
God does anybody tell you, God does anyone know?
Not your one way ticket, I'm your one way show
Has your mind got away? YeahHas your mind got away? Has your mind got away?
Has your mind
Has your mind got away? Has your mind got away?
Has your mind, tell me it ain't so?So the ladies arrive with their wardrobes of clothes
'Cause they know where to take you when everywhere is closed
Has the drink run dry like the jokes that you told
Has your mind got away? YeahAnother landslide election, oh, but you didn't vote
'Cause it all amounts to nothing once you have spoke
And the way that you dance, you should be lucky you ain't broke
Has your mind got away? YeahHas your mind got away? Has your mind got away?
Has your mind
Has your mind got away? Has your mind got away?
Has your mind, tell me it ain't so, tell me it ain't so?
Have you finally choked? You finally chokedAnd the last I remember, we both got it wrong
'Cause the mind walked sideways, while the brain got choked
But if no one's gonna tell you, then how should you know?
Until you've choked, until you've choked
