

Apology

Ashley Parker Angel

Close to you, so far away
A rented room, an empty space
Sirens bleeding through the open door
Movie scene in black and white
The snow falls down alone tonight
And no one's ever felt like this before
What went wrong with you and me?
This is my apology
'Cause even when I fall asleep
You stay with me, you stay with me
Stuck inside a broken frame
Watching as seasons change
Hoping time will finally set me free
Suddenly you're standing there
A crowded street, a lonely stare
A thousand miles of traffic in between
What went wrong with you and me?
This is my apology
From the moment that I leave
You stay with me, you stay with me
Every letter that you wrote stays with me
And every promise that I broke stays with me
And everything that's left inside stays with, it stays with me
Close to you, so far away
A rented room, an empty space
Sirens bleeding through the open door
Movie scene in black and white
The snow falls down alone tonight
And no one's ever felt like this before
