

Gathering Pebbles

dredg

Wait for me, you're onto something
Maybe there's no need to play catch-up, to play catch-up
Wait for me, you're onto something
Maybe there's no need to play catch-up, to play catch-up You 're casually
Casually walking through life without a worry
Worried its effects will show so now I'm gathering
Gathering the pebbles I need to drink from the well
So thirsty, so thirsty Wait for me, well, I am not very far behind
So wait for me, I'm still chasing you, oh
Wait for me, well, I am not very far behind
So wait for me while I play catch-up, play catch-up But thankfully
Thankfully, I haven't been taken very seriously
Seriously anxious to run the course without stumbling
Stumbling over fences, now I'm falling
Falling down the hillside
It's way too steep, it's way too steep Wait for me, well, I am not very far behind
So wait for me, I'm still chasing you, oh
Wait for me, well, I am not very far behind
So wait for me, I'm still chasing you, oh I happened to take a chance
Now there's no turning back
Return to childhood dreams
There rested figurines I've been through life fast
Riding over broken glass
There is no question now
That I will catch up Will catch up
Will catch up
Will catch up
