Walker's Ridge

City Sleeps

On walkers ridge love is not enough
And time keeps tickin' on without us
Hand in hand the gods will ignoreConfused the rain, here comes your face
A strange one with familiar traces Silver tears you left there beforeNow will you fall into a different world
Where I'd be the only one?And I've only missed you to pick my locks
And try to guess who's come around and who's stayed
And I've tried to stay alive, I cry myself to sleep every night
Dreamin' to recapture the faces you madeI've got two pills in the usual drink
And I'd be the only one'Cause you drive me crazy
You know that you do
It hurts that you won't be mine
'Cause you drive me crazy, crazyOn walker's ridge time is not enough
To burn the houses down lookin' up
Eye to eye the gods will recognizeYou left a trail of tears behind
And all the streets end up intertwined
So walker's ridge is where I will dieI've got two pills in the usual drink'Cause you drive me crazy
You know that you do
It hurts that you won't be mine
You drive me crazy, crazyCrazy, you know that you do
It hurts that you won't be mine
You drive me crazy
You drive me crazy, crazyOn walkers ridge, love is not enough
And time keeps tickin' on without us
Hand in hand the gods will ignore

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/