

Real Fine Love

John Hiatt

Well now I never went to college babe, I did not have the luck
Stoled out of Indiana in the back of a pickup truck
With no education higher than the streets of my hometown
I went lookin' for a fire just to burn it all down You've got a real fine love
You've got a real fine love
One I am unworthy of
You've got a real fine love, baby Yeah I thought I had a line on something, maybe no one else could say
And they couldn't find it in their hearts to just get out of my way
Then out of nowhere and from nothing you came into my life
I'd seen an angel or two before, but I'd never asked one to be my wife You've got a real fine love
You've got a real fine love
One I am unworthy of
You've got a real fine love, baby Well you can sprinkle all your teardrops across the evening sky
But you cannot hide that twinkle of starlight in your eye
Well I left my map way back there baby, I don't know where we are
But I'm gonna pull my pony up and hitch my wagon to your start You got a real fine love
You got a real fine love
One I am unworthy of
Yes you got a real fine love, baby Well now the babies are all sleeping and the twilight's givin' in
She looks like you, he looks like her and we all look like him
Well maybe it's just the little thing, the way I feel tonight
A little joy, a little peace and a whole lot of light You got a real fine love
You got a real fine love
One I am unworthy of
Yes you've got a real fine love
A real fine love, a real fine love You've got a real fine love
One I am unworthy of
Yes you've got a real fine love
A real fine love, a real fine love
Yeah, yeah

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>