

Drive of Shame (feat. Mick Jagger)

Brad Paisley

What should it be?
Kay, I got it
I don't remember too many to be in possession of a CK
Cool
Okay Lets goOkay this is it
My finest moment by a long shot
As I walk through this casino knowin' there ain't now one up at 6 O'clock
With my hair messed up and my shirt untucked I hit the parking lot
"I had a real good time", that's what she said
As she threw me my shirt and kicked me out of bed
Now as the sun comes up
It's shining a light
On the big mistake, I made last night
Vegas strip turned to memory lane
Now pullin' on to the interstate
Excuse me while I take
The drive of shame
The drive of shameI gave the valet my ticket
Since when is it judgment day?
I guess he wasn't impressed
The way I was dressed
On my Chevrolet
I don't remember too clear
I was thinking of beer and a fashion CK
That's what she said
Then she threw me my shirt and kicked me right out of bed
Now as the sun comes up
It's shining a light
On the big mistake, I made last night
This Rodeo drive turns to memory lane
I hit the gas and she hit the brakes
Excuse me while I take
The drive of shame
The drive of shameI look to my right
And who do I see
The girl I just left
For a chick [?Now as the sun comes up
It's shining a light

On the big mistake, I made last night
A Central park west turns into memory lane
I hit the gas and she hit the brakes
Excuse me while I take
The drive of shame
The drive of shame
The drive of shame
The drive of shame Oh yeah
I'm hanging my head down
Oh yea

Yeah I gotta get out of this town
Doin' the drive of shame
Who's gonna get the brain
Drive of shame
Doin' the drive
Oh yeah
Yeah

Everybody what kind of a car is that?
