

Wait

THE BELLIGERENTS

You can take your time
It'll make no difference to me
I'll still smile
See potential that you can't see
I mean, all my friends are getting old and they don't really care about me
I have to let it go Seasons change
I remember, while you forget
I'll change my ways
Undermind my confidence
All my friends say let it go,
but they don't give a fuck about me
This time I've lost control(X2)
Wait
These things go,
For too long
Far too long
Waiting for my time
I see the stars
In my mind
They align
Waiting for my time Waiting for my time
