

Betty's a Bombshell

Grouplove

Betty's a bombshell, she just got paid
Crossing the street on passionate gates
Billy's a looker he's from upstate
He ran into Betty and he took her on a date
And it's a sunny day, we will go away, on a holiday
And it's a sunny day, we will go away, on a holiday
And it's okay, all the suffering obliterates at speed.
But don't you wait (don't you wait)
For the faster you let go will receive what you need
Ohh ohh ohh
And Betty said Billy why you making that face
Since you moved in you've been on a different page
You've been out of commition hiding in the kitchen
And Freddy came over and you couldn't even listen
It's a great escape from your heartache it's your replay
It's a great escape from your heartache it's your replay
And it's okay, all the suffering obliterates at speed
But don't you wait (don't you wait)
For the faster you let go you will receive what you need
It's okay all the suffering obliterates at speed
But don't you wait (don't you wait)
For the faster you go you will receive what you need
Uh uh uh
It's a sunny day, we will go away, on a holiday
It's a sunny day, we will go away, on a holiday
It's a... uh uh uh... holiday holiday.
