Shine

Black Gold

she knows it's time to say goodbye to all that she wanted for all that she loves.devotes her mind to thoughts divine for all that she needed and all that she lovesrecites the lines repeats the rites
to all that she needed and wanted mostwon't you shine tonight, in the face of the light?
with you on my mind,
i can make it through,
make it through the nightshe bides her time with quiet pride for all that she wanted and all that she lovesshe begs and pleads he's all she needs and ever wanted
she calls out againwon't you shine tonight,
in the face of the light?
with you on my mind,
i can make it through,
make it through the nightshe takes him in
on calloused knees (but he's not there)
the emptiness is all she sees so she begs and she pleadswon't you shine tonight?
In the face of the light?
with you (with you on my mind, I can make it through;
with you on my mind I can make it)won't you shine tonight,
in the face of the light?
with you on my mind,
make it through the nightwon't you shine and shine tonight?
won't you shine in the face of the light?
with you on my mind,
i can make it though,

make it through the night, though this night.
