

A Vision Of Mother

The Stanley Brothers

Often my thoughts drift back to childhood
To the times when I was free
As I played before the fireside
'Round my darling, mother's kneeThere's a blessed home up yonder
Where my loved ones wait for me
I saw mother in a vision
Kneeling there to pray for meThen one day our mother left us
Daddy said she'd gone to rest
I remember how she loved me
As she clutched me to her breastThere's a blessed home up yonder
Where my loved ones wait for me
I saw mother in a vision
Kneeling there to pray for meSome sweet day I'll meet you, mother
Your little boy is coming home
To see you as in days of childhood
The one you loved and left aloneThere's a blessed home up yonder
Where my loved ones wait for me
I saw mother in a vision
Kneeling there to pray for me
