

This Train Is My Life

Marillion

This train is my life
Speeding through the night
We have been to these places
For barely a momentWide awake
Sometimes sleeping
Sometimes watching
Sometimes dreamingThrough stroby stations
Too fast to know their names
Too fast to know if we came or will come againSleeping towns joined together
By the steel of the rails
Parallel lines
Parallel livesYou and I
We're movie-rich
We're reflected in the window
The dark night's black mirror glass
Distant lights from the wrong side of the tracksChristmas lights
Go by in the houses
Anonymous windows
Anonymous rooms of
Anonymous soulsSo take my hand
Squeeze it tight
Make some light
In the darkness
I'm glad you came on this trip
Don't lose your grip
Don't lose your grip
This train is my life
This train is my lifeTravel with me
And we'll see..
